The School Sale

It was the day of the school sale. Mum could not go as she had a pain in her knee, so Gran said she would take Kate and Wayne. They could not wait!

At the school gate, Gran paid 20p to get in. She did not have to pay for Kate and Wayne – it was free for children!

As soon as they were through the gate, Gran gave Wayne and Kate £1 each to spend, and told them not to go too far away.

The sun was shining. “It’s as hot as Spain!” said Gran. “I think I need a cup of tea.”

At the tea stall, a lady put Gran’s tea on a tray, and Gran went to find a place to sit in the shade.

Meanwhile, Kate and Wayne went round the stalls. Kate had her face painted like a rainbow and had a go on the “Name a Teddy” stall. Wayne bought a game of chess and a piece of chocolate cake for Mum. They both had a go on the “Pin the tail on the donkey”. It was quite safe – the donkey was only made of paper!

When the sale was nearly over, Kate and Wayne went back and found Gran fast asleep under the tree. “What a shame,” said Kate, “she’s missed all the fun!”
