Boy rescued from fire

In the early hours of Saturday morning, a Warwickshire fireman carried a six year old boy from his burning home in Telford Crescent, Nuneaton.

The boy, Ryan Jones, had been home alone whilst parents, Mick and Norma, were out playing bingo. Ryan was trapped in the bedroom of his home for 30 minutes before firemen were able to rescue him.

The smoke from the fire was so severe that the firemen wore breathing apparatus and entered the house in pairs.

The boy was rushed to Warwick hospital where he is being treated for burns and smoke inhalation. His parents are currently being questioned at Nuneaton Police Station. Charges are expected.
